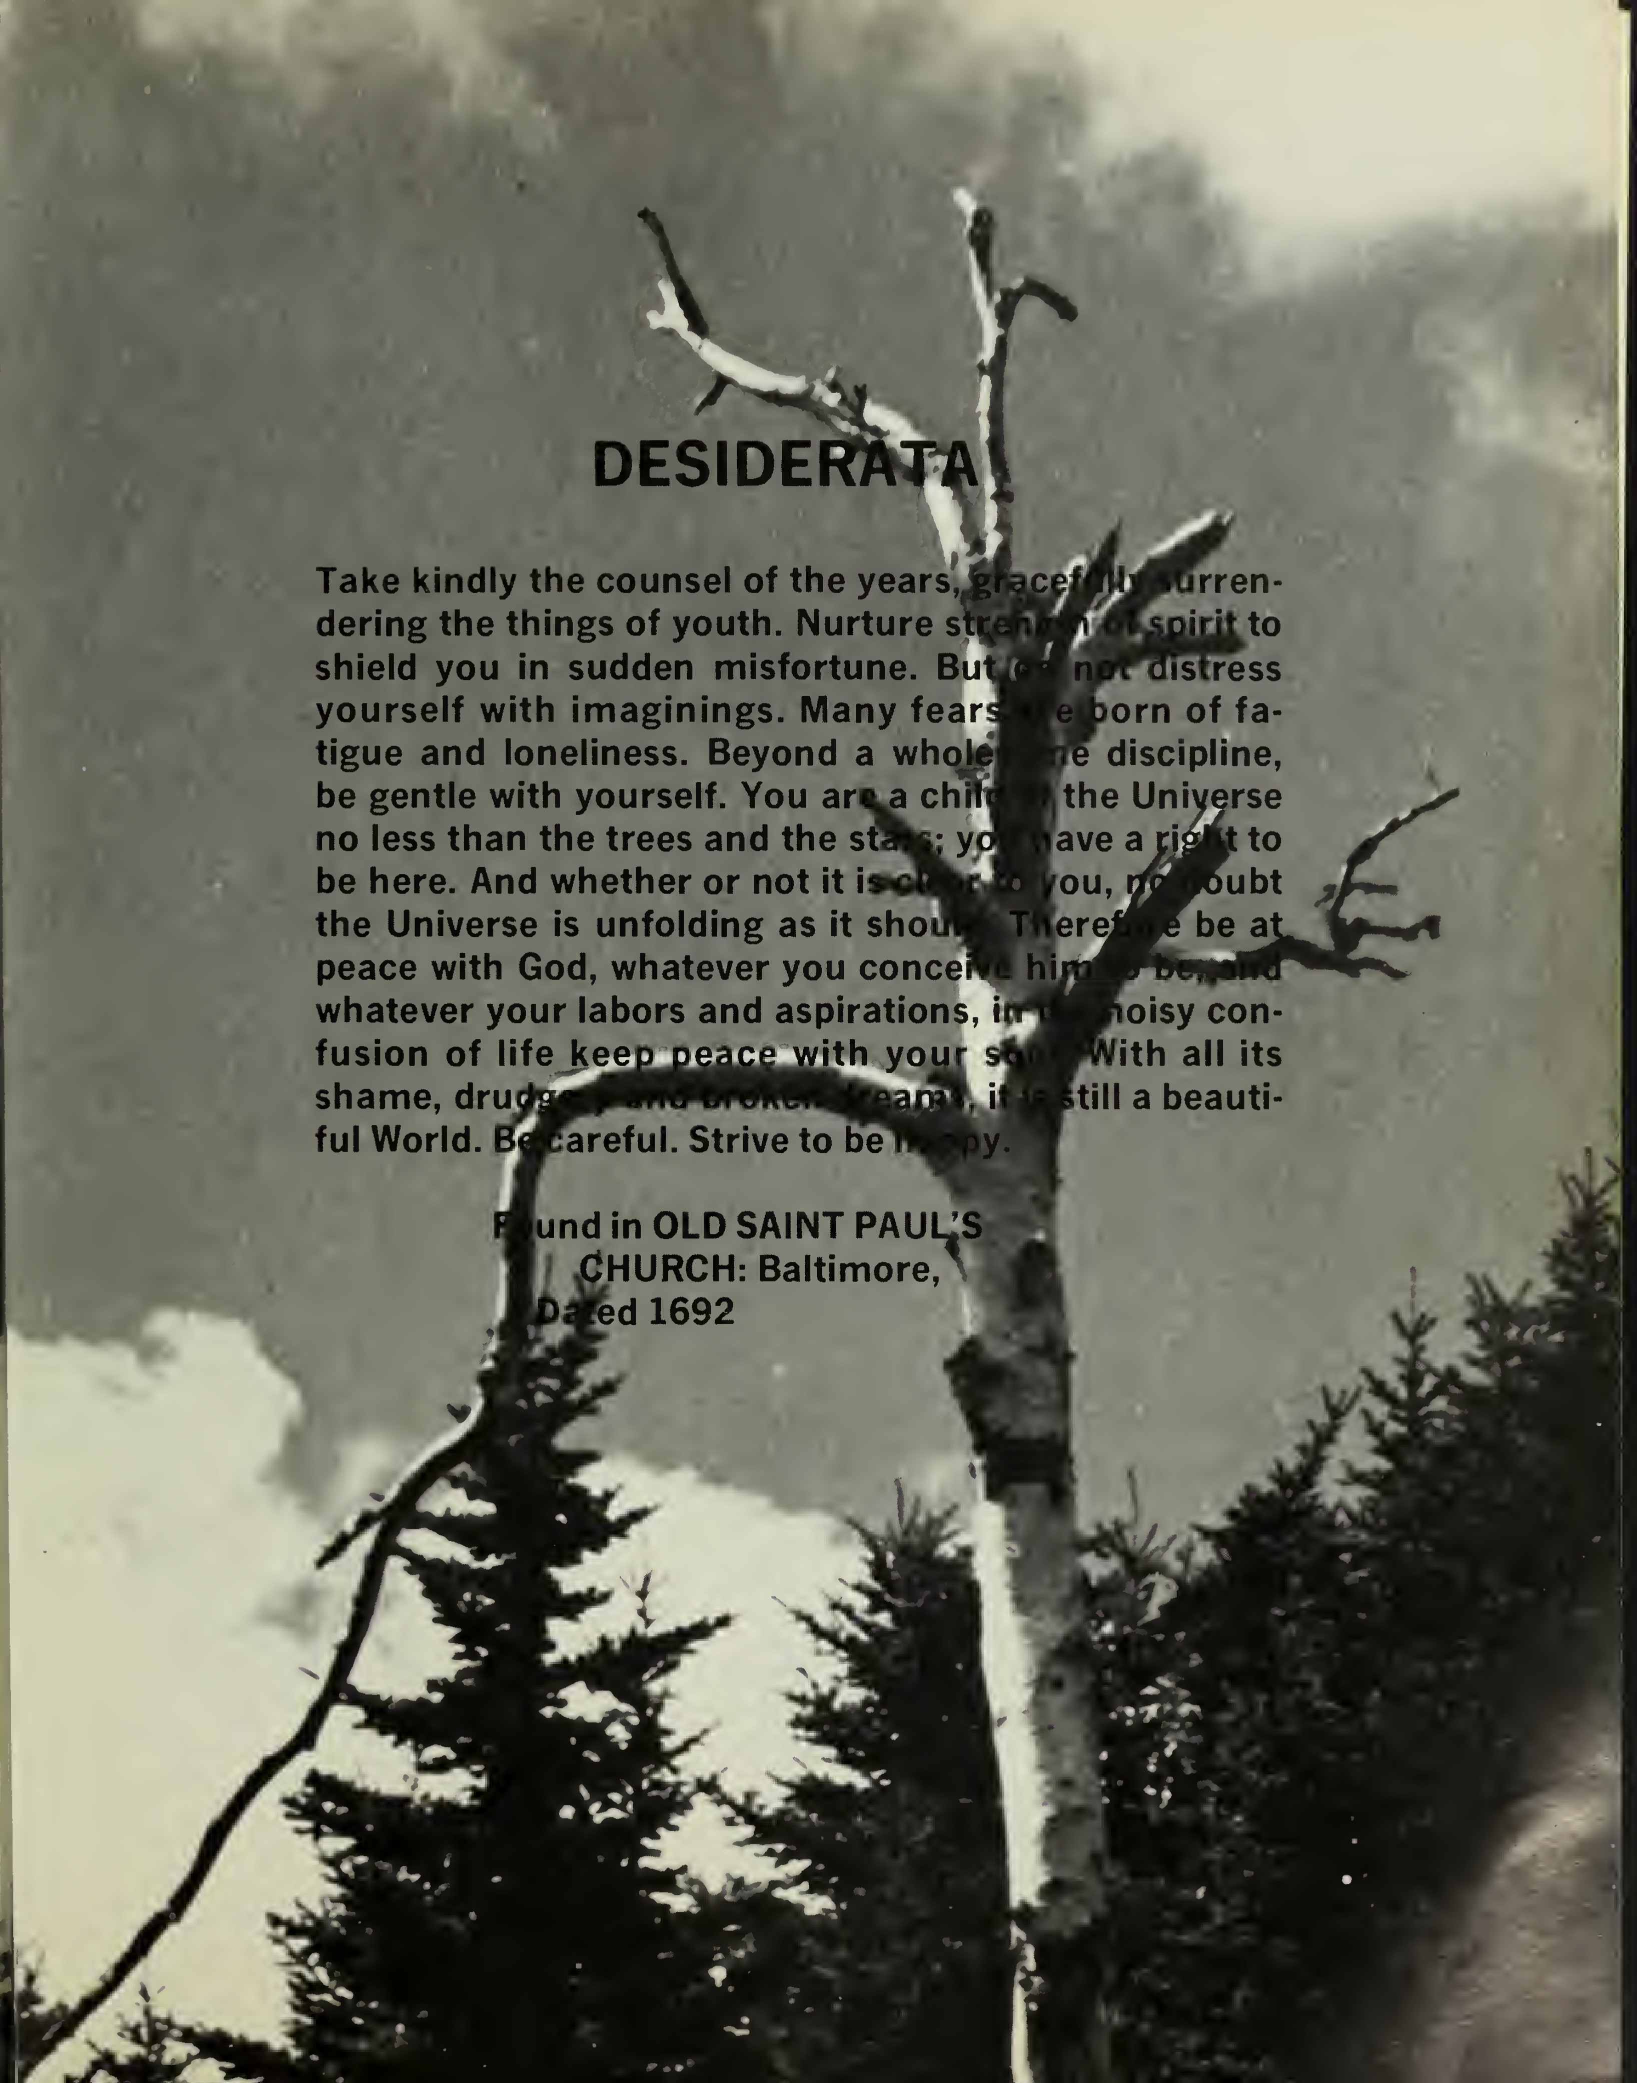
DESIDERATA

Go placidly amid the noise and haste and remember what Peace there may be in silence. As far as possible without surrender be on good terms with all persons. Speak your truth quietly and clearly; and listen to others, even the dull and ignorant; they too have their story. Avoid loud and aggressive persons, they are vexations to the spirit. If you compare yourself with others, you may become vain and bitter; for always there will be greater and lesser persons than yourself. Enjoy your achievements as well as your plans. Keep interested in your own career, however humble, it is a real possession in the changing fortunes of time. Exercise caution in your business affairs; for the world is full of trickery. But let this not blind you to what virtue there is; many persons strive for high ideals; and everywhere life is full of heroism. Be yourself. Especially, do not fein affection. Neither be cynical about love; for in the fate of all aridity and disenchantment it is as perennial as the grass.



DESIDERATA

Take kindly the counsel of the years, gracefully surrendering the things of youth. Nurture strength of spirit to shield you in sudden misfortune. But do not distress yourself with imaginings. Many fears are born of fatigue and loneliness. Beyond a wholesome discipline, be gentle with yourself. You are a child of the Universe no less than the trees and the stars; you have a right to be here. And whether or not it is clear to you, no doubt the Universe is unfolding as it should. Therefore be at peace with God, whatever you conceive him to be, and whatever your labors and aspirations, in the noisy confusion of life keep peace with your soul. With all its shame, drudgery and broken dreams, it is still a beautiful World. Be careful. Strive to be happy.

DEDICATION

"A Teacher affects Eternity"
Henry Adams

Sir William Osler once said,
"No bubble is so iridescent or floats longer than that blown by the successful teacher."

These words seem to perfectly suit the man we honor today. In 1963 a young energetic teacher joined our faculty. He brought with him the experience, maturity and competence to mold our English Department to its present form. His philosophy on life fused with his ideas on the teaching of English have indirectly contributed to the success of many a GDA student. A strong background in English can be a basis for any success story one would like to tell. The usage and command of the language are essential if we as people are to communicate and relate our ideas and feelings to each other. In a small way, the man we honor today has made it easier for many GDA students to relate to themselves as well as others. He has helped us to realize what beauty there is in a simple line of poetry and what satisfaction there is in expressing ones self intelligently. He has taught understanding in the classroom, on the athletic field and in the community. More importantly he has taught and exhibited friendship and what it means to be successful. For his devotion to classes past and present, we, the Senior Class, most respectfully dedicate The 1973 Milestone to:

A new Headmaster, more girls, new teachers, new students, the old students minus a few, a flu epidemic that almost closed school, relationships: some blossoming others dying, senior spring term projects, Camelot, commitment: some people dedicated others not really caring, parties, relationships: some blossoming others dying, this and more than this was the year. Every year a series of events occur. Some of the events are the same, some are new, but one thing that remains constant is that they take people to make them happen. This year Governor Dummer has had the calibre of people to make the school go. It has had a balance between good and not so good. There will always be those who refuse to cooperate and commit themselves to the community, but this year somehow these people have not been a hindrance to the smooth operation of the school. The abundance of leadership in the senior class, and the overwhelming numbers of people who commited themselves this year in one way or another, have made it possible to disregard that minority of non-doers. It would be foolish to say that the amount of drinking or pot smoking decreased but the vein and frame of mind in which these activities occurred was different. The attitude this year was more one of fun rather than escape from the school or in hatred towards the school. This, of coure, in no way excuses the breaking of a rule, but this author contends that the attitude towards the act is also important.

People who in the past have been less active somehow were inspred this year and joined the group of those who found satisfaction, reward and challenge in athletics, dramatics and all community activities. An important thing to note about this year is that people seemed to care more for personal relationships. Although every friendship or boy girl combination didn't work there were those that were worth while to remember.

People seemed kinder to one another. The structure and rigidity between the classes seemed to have been less prevalent this year. Seniors talked and played with members of other classes as equals; all of the classes seemed to mix well, almost to the point of complete assimilation of grade levels. The adjustment to a new Headmaster was in no way unnatural. In the beginning Mr. Ragle and students clashed a little, but as we grew to know him and he to know us things began to operate as they should. Athletics, while not dominating the school, played a part in most everyones life. On the freshman level there was not that much talent to brag about, but the attitude that the kids had, made up for any deficiency anywhere else.

If by now, the reader has not gotten the idea that this year was a good one, he has not read very much. The key words were friendship and commitment. The faculty were a special breed of people this year. Mixing all the old faithfuls with a bit of new blood caused a balance that was not only inspirational in the classroom but responsible for the brewing of dedication in the students. A school will always operate better when everyone concerned does more than asked of him. The faculty and the students this year have made a combination that was unbeatable; two dedicated forces working toward a better school and community. A promiment faculty member once said, "A school is more than a business, it is a shared ideal."

One might still ask, what has this year been? The answer for most of us lies within, but for the most part it has been a year filled with commitment and a year where more personal relationships have blossomed, rather than died. This author hopes that the school years to come can be as meaningful to the individual as this one. It is through the individuals satisfaction that the satisfaction of the group is attained.

SEPTEMBER

OPENING DAY

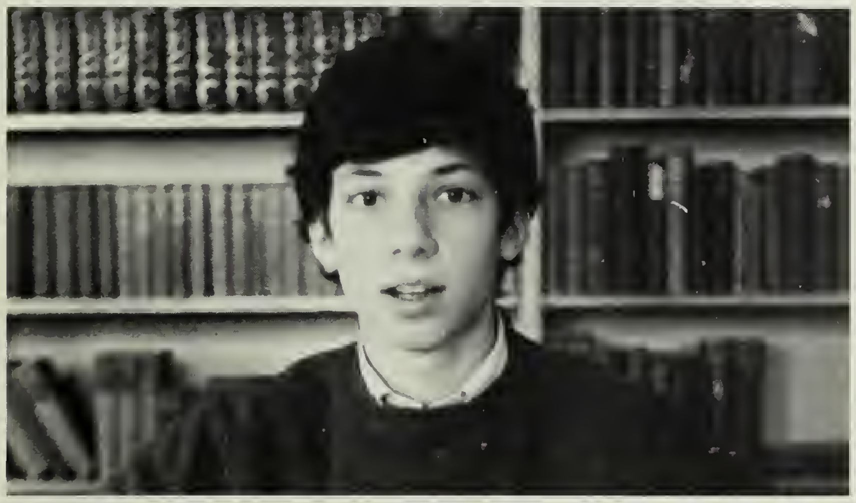
Apprehension — Expectation — Despair! As happens every year around the second week in September, a mass migration toward the depths of the Byfield Valley again took place. Students, most with parents, seemingly with half their houses in tow, arrived at GDA, where they would once again, or for the first time, be subjected to the torturing whims of faculty, a new headmaster, and unbearably constricting rules. Where will one fit in? Or must someone always be left out? Many things would be different. But many would remain the same.

Looking ahead ... A chance to meet new friends — perhaps old friends — boyfriends — girlfriends — more girlfriends — five hours of homework (you kiddin' me?) — study halls — roommates (for a whole year?) — teammates — dormitories — grades — report cards — papers — papers — and more papers! — you'd better be in shape, baby — dorm meetings — bull sessions — name tags — Hey, man, what kind of accent is that, anyway? — what a face! — you say he's a teacher? — my dorm just disappeared —

What will tomorrow bring? A horrendously chaotic mass of confused students and teachers? Demanding homework ? Humiliation ? Glory?

It has all happened before ... It should all be the same ... the nervousness — depression — hidden tears and concealing laughter. But tomorrow the tears will disappear — the laughter will be real.

OCTOBER



PARENTS DAY

Ignoring the rain, teachers armed with incriminating statistics, and not infrequent refusals of anticipated privileges failed to prevent Parent's Day from being an intensely satisfying success for students and relations alike. Shaving cream on the sidewalks fortunately remained unnoticed as students were exposed, in a figurative sense by the faculty and often literally by premature visitors. The girls displayed their talents in an early-morning field-hockey scrimmage before Groton, armed with little Lou on the sidelines, wiped out football in the mud 29-6. Middlesex, Nobles and the NVSS Striders all fell to the powerful GDA cross-country squad while the soccer team provided an excitingly tense struggle before falling to league champion Tabor 2-1 in front of a gathering of fans fresh from the installation service. Underclassmen with jobs fulfilled their duties perfectly thanks to Mr. Witherspoon's meticulous efforts. The food was great, both at GDA and perhaps elsewhere in the evening. Now that we've managed to fool them once again, on to Thanksgiving vacation!

INSTALLATION SERVICE

On October 28, 1972 John Williams Ragle was installed as the 25th Headmaster of Governor Dummer Academy. Mr. Ragle's initial appointment was made last May by the Board Of Trustees. The installation was performed by Mr. Gerry J. Dietz '35 President of The Board of Trustees. After the induction address Mr. Ragle gave the acceptance speech. Other speakers at the ceremony were Kevin McKenna '73, Chairman of Student Council, Mr. A. Macdonald Murphy Senior member of The Faculty, Mr. Murry Mathews '60 Alumni Fellow to the Board of Trustees and Dr. James Hornig. The Reverand Henry Spire, Chaplain of Governor Dummer Academy, gave the invocation and the benediction. The service was a happy occasion for the school, the community and the Headmaster's family. We all look forward to the coming years of furthur progress and prosperity for the school.

What I am acknowledging here today is that I have come to a healthy and a good school, one which has never in its history been stronger — a fact which is at the same time sobering and reassuring."

FALL SPORTS

CROSS COUNTRY

CROSS COUNTRY — 1972

The 1972 Cross Country season was notable in more than a few ways. Not content with the team's 11-1 record — its best ever — the G.D.A. runners tied Moses Brown's PG Brigade for first place in the New England Prep Class B Interscholastic race, and added a fitting finish to their season by winning outright the first-ever Private School League Championship meet on their home course.

For most of the runners who were to comprise the team's "top seven" — that is, those who count for meet scoring, and who gain the privilege of running in championship meets — the season started early, on the Sunday before the official opening of school. For the first few days, there were two workouts a day, affording a chance to see beautiful natural sights, such as the sunrise, while at the same time getting into shape. The early arrivals were joined on the opening day of school by the rest of the team, including the first girls ever to run for Governor Dummer. The first practice meets, all on the home course, allowed several members of the team to correct difficulties they had had concerning in which direction they were supposed to run.

By September 30 everyone was ready to run St. Sebastian's at Newton, in the earliest meet ever for a G.D.A. Cross Country team. The Governors were just too strong for a determined St. Sibby's squad, and ran to a 20-37 victory, although the race was much closer than the score indicated. The following Wednesday marked the season's lone defeat, 23-37, to Class A Champion Andover on their home course in a tri-meet with Huntington. After defeating Browne & Nichols and St. Mark's without much difficulty, the harriers journeyed to Providence for the season's biggest meet, against arch-rival Moses Brown. In a very satisfying performance, G.D.A. beat Moses Brown for the first time ever in dual-meet competition, 24-31. Following a victory at St. Paul's, the Governors took the first nine places at Milton for their second shutout of the season, as the first eight finishers broke the previous Milton course record. The team defeated Belmont Hill in a dual meet and then Middlesex and Noble & Greenough in a Parent's Day tri-meet before the top seven men on the squad, plus two alternates, went to Vermont Academy for the Interschols, and came away with a 53-53 first place tie with a much improved Moses Brown team; the first place finish being another milestone for Governor Dummer Cross Country. In between "big" meets the Governors beat Lawrence, 21-38, in the season's final dual meet. The Private School League meet was the second championship race of the season; and this time the Governors dominated the race, held on their own course, outdistancing second-place Lawrence, 27-80.

The 1972 Varsity Soccer team compiled a very memorable 4-4-4 record as they exhibited the finest soccer Governor Dummer has seen in years. The team adopted an effective short passing game early in the preseason weeks and their teamwork matured each time they took the field. The defensive line, quarterbacked by goalie-captain Bruce Sheldon M.V.P., created an almost impermeable barrier which allowed only 15 goals. The personal talents, as well as, the sense of comradeship among the fullbacks helped them achieve a notoriety throughout the league. They consistently quelled the attack of such powerful opponents as the strong Exeter and Andover attacks. The first two games of the season shall forever mark the history of Governor Dummer soccer, for it was the first time ever that the Varsity did not lose to Exeter and the 2-1 victory over Andover marked the first in 19 years. The attack, led by Co-Captain Tim Crane and the McKenna brothers, worked to destroy every defense it met. The team composed of many Seniors and some Juniors was able to demonstrate its skill in every contest. Coach Clunie, not expecting much, was surprised at the teams ability and commented that it was the best soccer team he had coached here. This years team is one that will be remembered by all.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

The 1972 Varsity Football team suffered through a season of many disappointments. The team, small in size, suffered a loss of some players because of injury and lack of interest. The football program was planned to be one of great intensity however, the players lacked the strength and ability to beat many of their superior opponents. The coaching staff combined their efforts to make the season one of learning for the inexperienced, and meaning for the old veterans. Halfway through the season the team combined with the Junior Varsity team, which also was suffering because of size. The first six games of the season were lost. At this point the average person would have given up but the team held on to its spirit. They beat Belmont Hill in their last game of the season. The team at all times maintained its dignity and in defeat was respected by its opposition. It is always easy to be happy on a winning team but, very difficult on a losing one. In terms of statistics this year's Varsity Football team was a losing team. This years team was a winning one because they worked, ran, and hurt. They had spirit and dedication. They had great men behind them coaching, encouraging and helping. Their Co-Captains were inspirational. The team learned to work, sweat, hurt and lose together. They learned the meaning of friendship. They learned the meaning of sportsmanship. They were a success because they did not allow themselves to be beaten psychologically. They might have been outmatched but never were they outfought.

GIRLS FIELD HOCKEY

Girls field hockey was felt to be, by many of the girls, the best thing to ever happen to the girls athletic program. It meant a lot to the girls because, unlike last year, they had a team that represented Governor Dummer Academy. Half of the team lacked in experience but the other half made up for it in spirit. They knew they could always count on the Shore girls to help them in times of distress. The Shore girls were Miranda Diggle, Marg Lampert, and Pam McElroy. These were the girls that really knew what they were doing. The new girls however, learned very fast and found much enjoyment at the same time. The girls this year had something they never had before; spirit. Girls came to practice, there were no complaints when practice went well into the evening hours, and no objections about playing on Wednesdays, their days of rest.

It would be hard to say that all of the spirit was brought on by the girls alone, a large part of the team's spirit was spured by a very special person, whom the team respected and loved, Mrs. Baker, their Coach. She had patience with them, she gave them confidence when they were in need of it and she taught the team what team work and effort could do. The thing that sticks out most in the minds of the girls is an experience that occured before their first real game. The game was against Exeter H.S. and at home. A girl was asked by one of the many boys there, how they were doing? Then they truly felt a part of Governor Dummer.

J.V. FOOTBALL

The Governor Dummer J.V. football team experienced a difficult 0-5-0 season. The record, however, does not really show the true potential of the team. Because the Varsity and Freshman squads needed many more players, the J.V. squad was split in half; half the team worked out with the Varsity and the others worked with the Freshman team. For this reason the J.V. could never develop to their full promise. Although they did not practice together, they came together in games and played well, despite their lack of experience.

An example of this is the first game against a tough Brown and Nichols squad. Trailing by two points at the half, the J.V.'s determined defense held Brown and Nichols scoreless until the final minutes of the game. Although their opponents had the advantage in practice, the tenacity of the J.V.'s nearly stopped them.

Probably the game that best demonstrated the team's true spirit was the last one, against St. Marks. The offense was having trouble moving the ball, due mainly to repeated fumbles. The defense, however, limited the extremely strong St. Mark's offense to only one touchdown. By the time dusk had set in, however, St. Marks had scored twelve more points, taking the game out of reach of the Governors. The team did not give up; with only twelve seconds left the J.V.'s scored on a forty yard sweep, in a futile attempt to even the tally.

Despite the many setbacks the team had to endure, spirit was never lacking, all that was needed for a perfect season was more experience in playing together.

The third team gridders, aided by a crop of sophomores, powered its way to a 3-2-1 season, the best of any football team on campus this fall. The ferocious running attack, which consisted of Woody Benson at quarterback and Doug Baker, Tim Woodhall, John Giampa, and Mike Zagrafos at running backs crushed most of the defenses met. They succeeded in scoring one hundred-two of the season's one hundred-fourteen points. The remaining two touchdowns were scored by the iron defense, specifically Dave Higgins and Ethan Stone. Defense was very important to the club.

In the season opener, the third team crushed B&N at Cambridge 36-14. They played Brooks school twice winning the first on home soil by blanking them 28-0 but they managed only to come up with a tie, 14-14, when they played the second match away. In the final game, plagued by mud and rain, the third gridders suffered their only defeat on home ground to St. Sebastians who blanked them 21-0. Despite the soaked field, their spirits were not dampened, and they held on till the final whistle. This characterizes their great determination which never stopped during the season. Coaches Ogden and Rice deserve much credit for molding such a team.

The 1972 J.V. soccer team had, in well-known terms, a "character building" year. In other words, the defeats were numerous, as the squad finished with a record of 0-9-1, hopefully along with the usual wealth of experience. Each game proved demanding, tough competition never ceasing to come from the opposition. The team realized that perhaps they were not destined to win as often as others, but inspired efforts and exciting performances never failed to show the dedication and potential of the team during every contest. Practices were even fun, and enthusiasm seldom lagged. Injuries were often disregarded, as in the instance of John Spence's return to the lineup a mere week after a severe leg injury, simply for the sheer joy of playing. Goals, obviously, were sparse, but high scorers Andy Woodcock, Jim O'-Donnell and Mike Harding consistently tried their best to break through opposing defenses. Halfback Bruce Hoglander and starting lineman Brehon Laurent, along with fullbacks Alex Andrews, Ed Palmer, and Sam Gilliland relaxed infrequently as Kieth Esthimer encountered a continuous barrage of shots. Coaches Harlow and White see a change if such appreciation for the game continues to be exhibited in the future.

FROSH SOCCER

This years third soccer team was a mixture of many things. It was a team full of vigor and enthusiasm. The team coached by Mr. Williams had a disappointing record. The scores however in no way shows the true side of what this team really was. The coach, without a doubt, has to be one of the most dedicated men in the school. As a new coach of soccer he was a model for all. His standards were ones of a true sportsman and was the major source of inspiration for the unconfident players. The team was a very spirited one and had a streak of dedication hard to measure. The 1971 MILESTONE staff best expressed what this team truly was, in the following statement.

"A new student arrives at Governor Dummer and begins the struggle to grow up. He adjust to a new lifestyle, Initiates new friendships, and enters into new enterprises. The team sport is one of these enterprises in which a freshman begins to learn what commitment and involvement entail. The student emerges into the soccer field to face and prove himself to the coach and thirty strangers. In the coming weeks they become friends and learn to play together. He learns to depend upon them and be dependable himself. He learns that improvement means work. He faces his mistakes and limitations. Soon he is no longer proving himself but working with others as a team, giving what he can. Some play larger roles than others, but each had his own place and his own chance to improve. There are problems. Some think that they are indispensable; some think that they have little to offer. There are cold days and always the windsprints. Then the whistle blows, and there is a together team on the field. They are often outmatched but never out-fought."

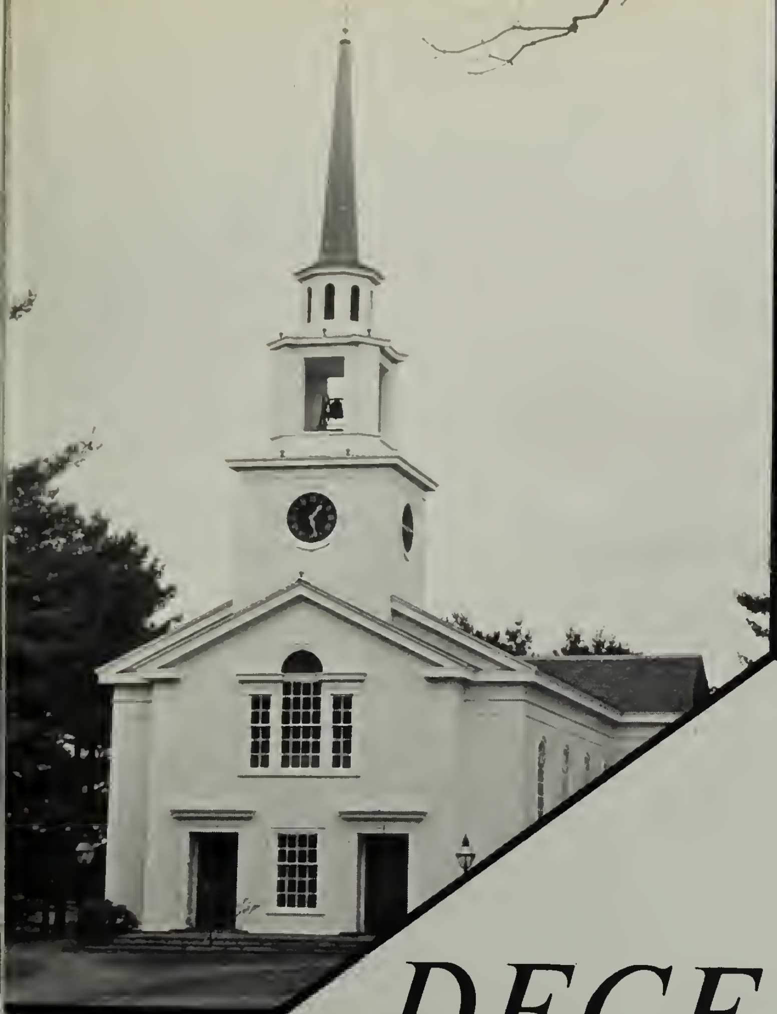
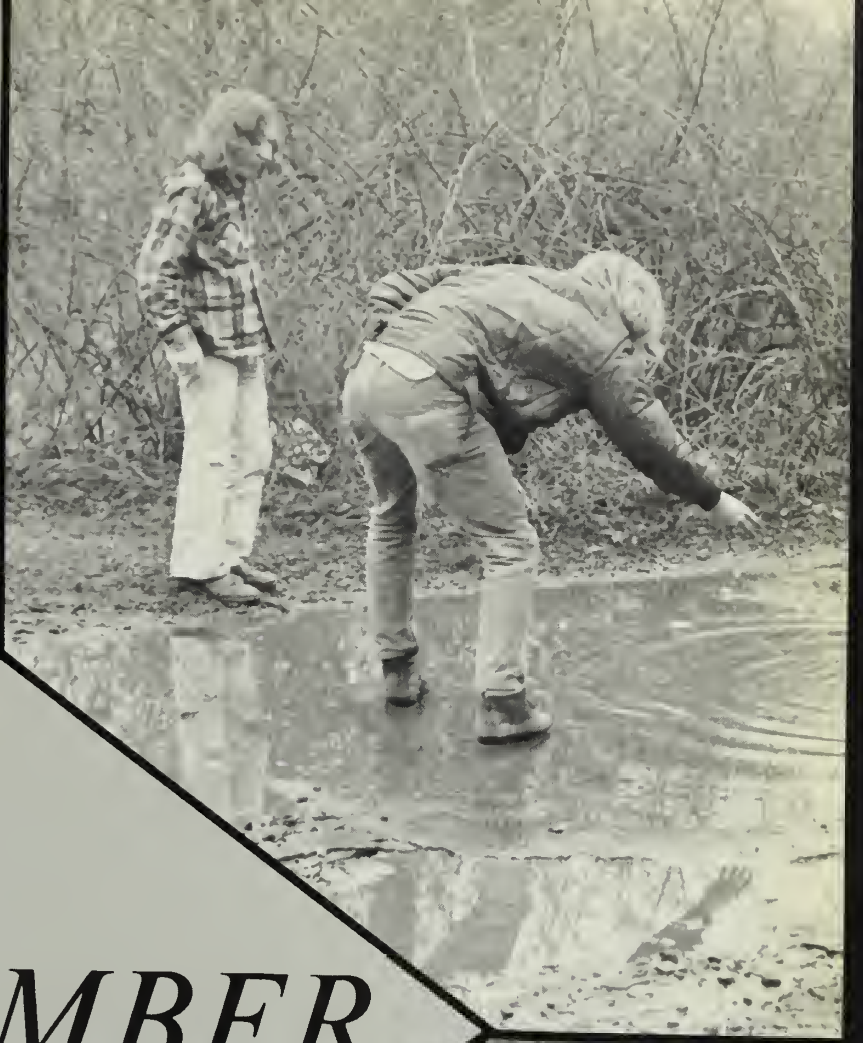
DECEMBER





JANUARY

With helpless acquescence the enemy was permitted to complete its frivolous assault, creating disorder and consternation among the ranks. One week all-expense paid vacations were frequently provided indiscriminately, that patriots might concentrate wholly upon repelling the seige. Revoltingly controversial side effects were endured with the moral and mental fortitude typical of the stoic combatants. Meanwhile, non-combatants took unprecedented advantage of opportunities to neglect their clerical responsibilities, enjoying benefits deserved only by those in the fighting squads. Strength and energy were sapped as the struggle wore on. Finally, though the gradual departure of the enemy did not equal its surreptitiously underhanded entry, some degree of normality was restored — as that infamous bug flu swiftly back to hibernation.

Traditional January formalities were by no means disrupted or ignored however. Clear consciences may not have been widely prevalent following termination of the annual Christmas sojourn, but rigorous church-going and celebrating seemed to have dissipated little of the uncharacteristically widespread willingness which had developed. Willingness to do ANYTHING. Who would have thought such obligations as play practice, athletic practices, and opportunities to demonstrate one's knowledge, achievements and certain other things would be met with willing cooperation rather than the usual languid disinterest. Numerous activist groups managed to surmount serious difficulties and proceed without discernible suffering. It would have made God, mother and country, along with some eccentric apple pie perhaps, eminently pleased to see such uncompromising efforts. Ostensibly, the depleted ranks slowly began to regain strength and momentum, and after an inconspicuous though esteemed hog, rumored to be a member of the underground, had supervised some mighty shadowy operations, January was past and February was on its way.

The Beer that made Milwaukee famous

The typical picture of a Governor Dummer student during past winters has been a somber male looking down resignedly at his untied shoelaces while slogging through the slush on the way to his second period chemistry class. Naturally he had neglected his homework the previous night. This year was different. Of course — there were girls. On the weekends Stu watched the hockey game while viciously decrying those spiteful creatures responsible for his ensconcement in such a dull and dreary place. Snow was eagerly anticipated, but met with pitiful whimpering when it indeed arrived. Worrying about homework usurped much of Stuey's time, actually doing it relatively little. He came to develop a good sense of rhythm and harmony during his incessant hummings of the Wisconsin Blues.

This year however, Stuey mysteriously changed. His loud boisterous antics in the dormitory continued to provide an outlet for frustrated energy, and perhaps he even manage to incur some acceptable punishment for an unacceptable outlet. But he forgot to think of spring in the excitement of the winter. A spendidly successful Christmas dinner hosted by the seniors afforded a premonition of things to come, and come they did.

Stu managed to heist a part in "Camelot", the winter production, which allowed up to ten hours of diversion a week, and sometimes more. A grandly conducted Winter Invitational dance evoked exhuberantly elevated spirits despite the initial languid response it received. Athletics were a chore no longer, with innovative coaching and strengthened friendships further alleviating boredom. And Stuey decided if he couldn't worry about the snow, which rarely seemed to come out of hibernation, he might as well not worry about his homework and simply do it. Evidently many other students did likewise, as fifty-nine other individuals joined Stuey on the honor roll. Recurring flubug epidemics provided topics for conversation and consternation. College boards and Achievements did the same, draining students this time of their mental capacities. Too bad chemistry class was first period instead of second.

Either frustrated, chagrined and downright ashamed of JV and Varsity results the previous year, or determined to prove themselves, a cautious resolution to correct foibles of the past was omnipresent where the 1972-73 GDA hoop squad was concerned. With an all-abiding faith in their coach, their system and their own abilities, an awareness that they must hit the open shot, feed the open man, run the offense, and maintain sticky defense was never lacking. Rather than continue the warmup period through the opening tap, or waste numerous creditable performances and inspired efforts with a lack thereof during the concluding moments of each game, uninterrupted poise and concentration would produce more acceptable results.

Unlike most great strategies, this one produced at least moderate success. Beliefs that the 9-7 record could have been better fail to diminish the satisfaction derived from the seasons accomplishments and memories of the characterizing laughter and togetherness.

With an attitude of polite disrespect for the opposition instilled by Mr. True, the league's most cooperative and dedicated coach, the Governors celebrated their return to school after a pre-Christmas loss to Noble & Greenough by resonantly defeating Lawrence and Groton. However, after narrowly averting a duplication of their deflating loss to St. Sebastians at Belmont Hill, the Redmen found Rivers' reputation and St. Marks' height impenetrable. Thankfully, alternate victories and defeats at Middlesex in overtime, Moses Brown, Brooks and Milton noticeably augmented the growing confidence with which the final four games were anticipated.

It took a pivotal foul line violation from the big toe of St. Paul's center, but the Governors' esteemed opponent painfully bit the boards. Further exhilaration was provided as a twenty point victory offered in retribution for refereeing The Brown and Nichols Team Quarreling Competition, which the hosts won handily, helped the GDA delegation get out of the red. Then informed of the temporary resignation submitted by the Tabor JV coach in view of his dwindling lead, the Devilish Dribblers assumed responsibility for completing memorial services with a dutiful upset victory. With this in hand, Roxbury Latin realized both the expected and the inevitable when confronted with the Governors' remaining inspiration, and the season came to an end.

Nevertheless, remembrances of the satanically successful season will always remain . . . along with . . . Gary Indiana — Pilot Coles and Gunner Sheldon — The Head — super sophomores — and sophomoric seniors — The Three Stooges — "Run the . . . good shot, Stevie!" — Action (with a capital "O") — freshly launered unies — tasty gatorade — outside — inside — Tommy Goldfinger — potential early showers — and those ever-loving refs.

The Varsity Wrestling team was the best team we have had in four or five years. This was the first to ever beat Mt. Hermon, Exeter and Andover in one year. The big disappointment of the season was the loss to Milton. The team had expected to win, but lost to a fine opponent. The team also did very well in the Class A Interscholastics, finishing second, close behind Tabor.

Some individual records of team members were excellent. Glen Winkle, Co-M.V.P. mesmerized his opponents with his famous tap dance. With this deadly weapon he obtained an 8-1-1 season. He got a first in the New England Prep School Tournament and a first in the Class A Interscholastics. Chris Caldwell had another weapon; he grabbed his opponents by the leg and hung on like an enraged octopus until the victim succumbed. Chris had an 8-2 record, he finished first in the interschols and finished second at the New England Tournament. Cary Doyle had the best dual meet record on the team, 9-1, and got a second in the Interschols, but he did not place in the New Englands. Dave Metcalf did a very good job this season, a third in the Interschols and a second in the New Englands. Reg

Roome was the teams first four year letterman. "Cross-body ride" is Reg's middle name, and he justified it with a 7-2-1 record, a second in both the Interschols and the New England Tournament. Reg's chief asset was his sadistic streak, which gave him quite a reputation. Jim Fox was also an excellent performer, but was plagued by bad luck in both tournaments. Because of a car injury he missed many practices before the Interschols, in which he still managed to place fifth. He also placed fourth in the New Englands, despite having broken his nose the day before. Doug Pope had a few misconceptions; he did not realize that picking up your opponent and smashing him on the mat was anything but common place. It is probably misconceptions like ths that gave him his 8-2 record.

Prospects look rather poor for next years squad, because most of the team is graduating. But with the remaining wrestlers and few graduates from the second team, maybe Mr Evans will keep a healthy head of hair, his stentorian voice box, and a composure as serene as the Buddha.

The 1972-73 hockey season for GDA was not exactly successful. It started auspiciously, under the leadership of our new, but excellent, coach, Mr. Harrington, with the tying of the Alumni. This was the first time in several years that the team had not lost this game. Spirit was high and we went on to defeat Triton High School 4-2. With the Christmas break, however, things began to happen. First of all, the plague (the flu) struck the team. Against Moses Brown the team lost five of the most important members. Several players from the J.V. were brought up, but varsity experience was lacking and the team lost 4-1.

As the season progressed the team became hot and cold by turns. We could not seem to put three good periods together. Against Middlesex two good periods were played, but the middle one was a letdown. This seemed to become a pattern for the rest of the season. What also became common was scores that distorted the quality of the game. This became evident in the Thayer game where we held them to one goal in the first period and one in the third. Although there were seven, in the second, the team played very well. Thayer at that time was considered the best team in both leagues. Nothing can be said about the other 9 or so games except that we simply could not put it all together. One really bright light came in the end of the season. Despite the loss of Greg Connolly, who had to coach when Mr. Harrington was forced to ref the game, the whole team put together the best game of the season against St. Marks. Although St. Marks was the number two ranked team in the league, they could only manage to score in the last 40 seconds of the game.

Fortunately only four seniors will be lost this year; Buck O'Leary, Gordon Thompson, Phil Bouchard and Parky Wise, all of whom lent their experience and good play to the team, and will be greatly missed next year. But with Carl Hendy and Brian Hancock on defense, Greg Connolly, Jim Roome and Benny Young on line, along with Mike Lambrose and Steve Bottomly in goal the team should be the best in years.

The winter track season was quite respectable, despite the usual absence of an indoor running facility. Competing for the first time in the New Hampshire winter league, the team recorded a blistering third in Division II. Consistently strong performers were many. Chris Baker tied the school record in the 50 and produced competent results in the high jump and 300. Nearly every high hurdles tape was touched first by Bill Martin, who added his abilities in other events as well. Dennett Buettner and Geoff Peters vied for places in the 600, with Fred Sargent affording representative speed in the 1000. His fellow co-captain, Tom Bertsen, often doubled in the mile and two mile along with Tom Bell.

Dual meet competition was against Mo Brown and MIT, tri-meets seeing Exeter-Huntington and Andover-Holy Cross frosh as the opposition. The MIT meet, though lost by a close score, was the scene of Bill Martin's 11'11½" pole vault, shattering the long sought-after GDA record by over a foot. The Governors met defeat against "the Ringling Bros. Circus" at Mo Brown, and were overwhelmed by the superior depth, talent and improvement due to facilities of Andover, Exeter and Holy Cross.

Numerous other factors contributed to the season's fruitfulness. Chris Baker tied the school record in the 50 at 5.6, with an unofficial 5.55 in another meet. There was also the infamous Andover Van Pushing Service which inexplicably limited its operation to one meet. Another memorable accomplisment was the victory over the girls' basketball team at the girls' own game, while the "Abusive" workouts created a focal point for the team's responsive nature.

Hopefully, future winter track contingents at GDA will continue to provide highly regarded competition while lightening the frigid winter months with antics derived from their distinctive identity and unique makeup; qualities expertly exploited by the lively 72-73 squad.

The 1972-73 ski season was both delightful and fulfilling thanks to the fresh, innovative workouts designed by Mr. White, and the emergence of Governor Dummer as the home of a most reputable ski team. GDA's second place finish in the league meet was no less than astounding considering that this marked only the second year that cross-country skiing had been on the scene at GDA. Significant upsurges in team morale and pride were provided by the one-point defeat of Milton and the upset of Noble & Greenough, highly respected representatives in the nine-member school circuit. The Nobles skiers who visited GDA to conduct lessons devoted to their sport for the edification of GDA skiers evidently did their job well.

"Over the river and through the woods" was by no means a fictitious location for Mr. White's proteges. Preparation and experience acquired on the golf course, the river, the roads and elsewhere proved of immeasurable assistance during the season. According to the most current time trials the top six cross country skiers were Timmy Crane, who received a probably unprecedented four medals for varied competitions, followed by Rob Spaulding, Scott Arthur, Jon Woodhull, Larry Jones and Joe Kenneally. The addition of an alpine slalom ski team proved to be a quite successful endeavor, placing third in the league slolam meet at Nashoba Valley. Top alpine skiers were Tim Crane, Rob Spaulding, Jon Auerbach, Jon Woodhull, Jim Beach and Larry Jones. The third place finish in the overall standings is expected to provide incentive for even further progress in the coming years.

The Junior Varsity basketball season was worthwhile in terms of experience gained and a special lesson in adaptation. The team's record was 3-3 before Nelson Johnson departed for the varsity with his 21.8 ppg average, 2-4 after. Other members, however, learned to operate with smoothness despite the loss of such an integral part. Learning a system which they would polish and refine after attaining Varsity status. Mr. Baldwin's superb coaching and leadership indeed pulled the team through several close wins and allowed them to survive each loss with some additional wisdom.

Jim Pramberg's arrival was marked by added scoring and rebounding strength to complement the abilities of leading rebounder Bernis Williams, an expert practicioner of the art of intimidation. Colin Cross, Nat Jones and Steve Shapiro, along with sophomores Jim O'Donnell, Bruce Hoglander and Ed Palmer improved steadily throughout practice sessions as did remaining members, and saw increased action as the season progressed.

Next year's Varsity candidates are looking forward eagerly to gatorade priveleges while determined to make significant improvements in both abilities and statistics.

Appropriate words with which to describe the 1972-73 freshman basketball squad do not automatically come to mind. The club hustled and mantained spirit in its defeats while attempting to enjoy the season. The trials and terrors created by several close losses, and some distant ones, did nothing to detract from the dedicated efforts of players on the court. Mr. Moonves' experienced instruction and exemplary attitude will give rise to a greater degree of success in the future, and were indeed in evidence during the season's wins, most specifically the convincing display of teamwork and obedience to instruction in the defeat of Pike.

John Giampa and Wheeler Gemmer were the high scorers while Doug Baker and Chris McElroy held up the boards. Flashy Brad Levin often operated the offense against confusing zones, man to man presses and other discouraging tactics with comparative ease. The bench provided support whether playing or not, showing promise to be helpful in coming years.

Players and fans can appreciate the season for its undeniably stiff competition, excitement and the fact that for most it was their first indoctrination into organized basketball. The season was, in essence, an unforgettable experience.

JV WRESTLING

The J.V. Wrestling squad made up for their inexperience this year by a great desire to learn the science of wrestling. Since no records are kept of the team's scores in dual meets there is no way of telling if they had a winning dual meet season, but if winning is measured in the gaining of experience and having a good time this year's squad was euqal to that.

The season each year is finished with a tournament, which was held this season at G.D.A. Although the team had no champions they finished in a strong third place behind Exeter and Tabor. There was no exceptional outstanding wrestler, they all wrestled well and gained the experience necessary so that next year they will be able to fight for Varsity spots and help the Varsity to another successful season.

The 1972-73 J.V. Hockey season turned out rather dissappointing, with one win, ten loses, and one tie, but the record doesn't accurately show the performance of the team. All the members of the squad showed their ability in many of the games. Good hustle, and encouraging spirit was always exhibited by Tim Statler and Al Kumpey (Wade), who helped keep the team on the scoreboard as much as possible, but in the battle with Browne and Nichols it wasn't too easy. The goal tending executed by Tim McClellen and Dave Tozer also helped the team by keeping the opponent's scores to a minimum, but some of the other teams shooters scored regardless of the talent we had in the nets. Coach Leavitt did all he could to keep the team going, but it is fairly evident that he will be looking foreward to a better season next year.

FROSH HOCKEY

The third hockey team had a very profitable season. Not only did we have a good season as far as wins and loses, but also the experience of playing on a good team was edifying. All the players were full of spirit, hustling and fighting for goals. We started off the season with resounding victory over Brooks School, 13-3. As the season went on we continued to play hard, with true sportsmanship. We gained much experience from the losses; we learned how to accept defeat as well as victory. Mr. Fyrberg did an excellent job of coaching the team, his words of advice and encouragement did wonders to pick up the team and carry it through the difficult spots. Players that contributed most to our fine season were Dave Higgens, Brian Noyes, Dana Russell, and Jeff Ogden. In a season such as this one should not only consider the statistics, but also the knowledge of ones abilities that is gained.

There was an added attraction to watch in the 1973 winter season, this being the stupendous girls' basketball team. Governor Dummer has never had a girls' baskeball team before in its history and it was a great success — if you don't look at their win-loss record.

Headed up by Coach Baker, the season started off slowly — many of the girls had never played basketball before but by the end of the season they could all dribble the ball spectacularly!

The girls' varsity team consisted of such figures as Lisa Johnson, the fast break artist (who never got to show all her talent in that area) and Fiona Harris — the All American basketball nut who had a terrific hook shot that amazed everyone. Randy Diggle, the corner man, could get off incredible shots while Carol Bendetson could fake out everyone on the court when she passed the ball (including some of her own team members).

The J.V. team was great — to watch! They improved immensely from the start and no one had any more right to be prouder than they. There were such infamous characters as "Carry-The-Ball Blanch," "Swish-Shot-Potts," the latter of whom also played varsity with Carol Canning. We cannot forget the other two members of the squad who would on rare occasions mistake the opposing team's basket for their own, but besides that Vickie Bell and Deb Gravelle were indispensable!

APRIL

APRIL was, as usual, typical in most respects, atypical in others. Rain was interspersed intermittently with athletic practices, of course, while tans acquired during spring vacation diminished, dwindled, and generally disappeared. Spring term projects were undertaken enthusiastically, unenthusiastically, or not at all. The educational aspects of GDA are introduced dramatically with tests, papers, and more of both. Read, study, and write a critical essay on Oliver Jehosephat's vanguard amalgamated, corroborated, and investigated treatise, accumulated during graduate work at the University of Pogrovel, Iowa: THE MATING AND EXCRETORY HABITS OF INTOXICATED CRICKETS IN OSLO, NORWAY, in Shrdluvian form, of course. Practice for not one, but two productions began, to be joined later by a third, each sprinkled with liberal amounts of "play" as well as arduous labor. Varsity new-outfit watching was instituted for the male chauvinists, with heavenly bodies in profuse supply for the first time. The number of weekends, off-campus parties, even on-campus parties, continued to increase. Other than that, it was a morally, spiritually and ethically typical April.

MAY

MAY flowers follow April showers, as do athletic events, plays, commencement preparations, exams, and all that jive. Also going round are copious amounts of those opressive afflictions — winning and losing, or passing and flunking. The athletic teams as usual had plenty of both. The plays had predominantly the former and were a major part of the spring. Henry David Thoreau in jail, Charlie Brown in his backyard and Mr. Dramatic Reading in the dining hall all met with success. Three different productions in five days, and five performances in one week easily established new records, though the continuing upsurge in dramatic interest may cause them to soon be broken. A silent auction and Alumni Day were begun and ultimately finished on successive weekends, while clothes, beach parties and a few classes here and there or instances of homeworkitis provided new areas for conversation. Assiduous efforts, or a prodigious lack thereof, with regard to Spring Term projects culminated in — well, just culminated, as did the year, without undue ado.

VARSITY SPRING TRACK

SPRING TRACK 1973

At the beginning of the season, Coach Sperry told the 1973 Spring Track team that it had a chance for an excellent record if the groups on the team (i.e. distance men, sprinters, field events and weight men) would consider themselves as parts of a team rather than as groups and if the squad could avoid injuries. It was evident from the start that despite the fact that there were no injuries the team was lacking something. The first meet with St. Sebastian's, expected to be an easy win, instead became a very close one. The second meet against Masconomet and Winnacunnet was a disaster. Almost without exception, individuals failed to do what was expected of them, and the result was a double loss. At that point, however, it was made clear to the team members that it was necessary to support one another — not only during an event, but at practice and off the field as well. Perhaps it is only coincidental, but from then on the team lost only to Maine high school powerhouse Deering; and the performances began to be more indicative of the abilities of the performers. The culmination of the new feeling on the team came in the St. Paul's-Belmont Hill tri-meet on the next-to-last weekend of the season. Expected to be close, the meet instead turned into a victory for the Governors by twenty-one points over St. Paul's and by forty-five points over Belmont Hill. In every event without exception, the individual performers did at least what was expected of them and in many cases more; and each member of the team could feel his teammates' support.

The Interschols would have been a total success had not the second of the pre-season stipulations — no injuries — been violated. Even the realization that had circumstances permitted it would have been possible to achieve more did not cause the team to lose the self respect that it had developed during the season. On the basis of the 8-3 dual-tri meet record and the fifth place Interschols finish, but even more on the basis of its growth toward individual and group maturity during the season, the 1973 Spring Track team has every right to be proud of itself.

This year's Lacrosse season was not very successful. Due to graduation last year we lacked depth and experience, forestalling the moulding of the team as a unit. The season started slowly after our win over M.I.T. since there were a lot of new faces, never having played before, our offense stuttered. Just when things improved, and the attack began to jell, our leading scorer, Tim Crane, was lost for the season with a broken toe. The offense collapsed against Andover and St. Pauls. There were surprises, however, such as the defense. With two newcomers the defense gave co-captain and goalie Phil Bouchard more support than was anticipated at the start of the season. The mid-fields were plagued by injuries, inconsistency, and lack of experience. Injuries to attackmen further complicated the midfield alignments in order to obtain the best combinations.

All in all, as the season progressed we started to resemble a team. One could plainly see the mprovement game by game, as confidence and skills were built. We weren't the most talented Governor Dummer lacrosse team, and we still should have won more than we did, but at least it can be said we made some progress.

Our thanks to captains Buck and Phil and all the other seniors who helped.

VARSITY BASEBALL

"Losing is an experience in itself."

Two qualities comprise the criteria for a good baseball team. Strong talent is a must, but for success to be attained this must be accompanied by experience. A veteran ballplayer will react far better in the clutch than a first-year man of unlimited potential.

"Greenness" was the main affliction of the 1973 Varsity Baseball team. With only three starters returning from a year ago, positions had to be filled, plays had to be learned, and pressure situations had to be met. The 3-10 record reveals that success in these areas was not often achieved. Yet the team was in almost every game, losing by three or fewer runs nine times. At least half of these defeats could have been reversed had the squad possessed more experience. Three unearned runs wiped out several fine performances in the team's first game against Groton. Two missed signs at Brooks, one in the 13th inning, also proved costly. Overconfidence on the mound was the fatal error in a heartbreaking, last-inning loss to Middlesex. The same lack of hitting and inexperience obliviated an outstanding two-hit performance at St. Paul's. The inability to hit a curve ball produced sixty strikeouts in the first five games, making a mediocre group of oppsoing pitchers appear invincible.

The few positive features must not be overlooked, however. The team never lacked cohesiveness and not once surrendered on the field, due to the mature guidance provided by co-captains Bruce Sheldon and Steve Miller. Lanky first baseman Bruce picked up right where he left off junior year and emerged clearly as the squad's best hitter. Field leader and catcher Steve was a steady influence on the young team and could always be relied upon for a consistent performance. Rookie of the year honors must go to Steve Lu, whose solid play, both in the field and at the plate surprised most skeptics. Fran Burke shook off a poor start and regaining his confidence, hit over .300 for the season. Superb pitching performances from juniors Bill Skaff, at Milton and St. Paul's, and E. Scott Williams against St. Mark's afford optimism for next year. A solid team effort was evident at Roxbury Latin, where a twelve hit attack completely stymied the opposition. The most satisfying afternoon was spent against first place Belmont Hill, who brought a half-game lead into the contest and left in second place, due to excellent fielding performances. But at no other time could the squad "get it all together."

Nine players are returning next season and the added year should prove to be a great benefit. Coach Moonves hardly deserved the type of season he had this year, but he should have next year the spirit and talent, plus the experience needed to become a contender. This season, therefore, can not be considered a total loss; it has indeed been most worthwhile.

VARSITY GOLF

This year's golf team inculcated a great many changes. Pre-season practices no longer consisted of going to the infamous "Fatherland Farm." Instead, balls were hit into golf nets. The varsity schedule had a different outlook, as the Exeter-Andover tri-meet was dropped and matches against Worcester and Triton were added. However, the biggest difference between this year's squad and last year's was the inexperience in the Varsity lineup.

The only returning lettermen were Captain Dave Metcalf and Steve Bottomley. Playing number one and two, they found the competition much tougher than that to which they had become accustomed at numbers six and seven the previous year. They finished with four wins each, playing crucial parts in the team's win over Lawrence and the tie with Belmont Hill. At three was Tommy Palmer, new to the squad, with Peter Arnold playing four. Tom and Peter were easily the team's most consistent winners. Scot Arthur and Tim McCusker were the number five and six men, respectively, providing valuable help.

The team's record, 3-6-1, was obviously disappointing. Of the top six players, Dave Metcalf and Scot Arthur were the only seniors, so next year's squad, to be co-captained by Tom Palmer and Steve Bottomley, should meet with a more successful season, under the resumed command of helmsman Mr. Eames.

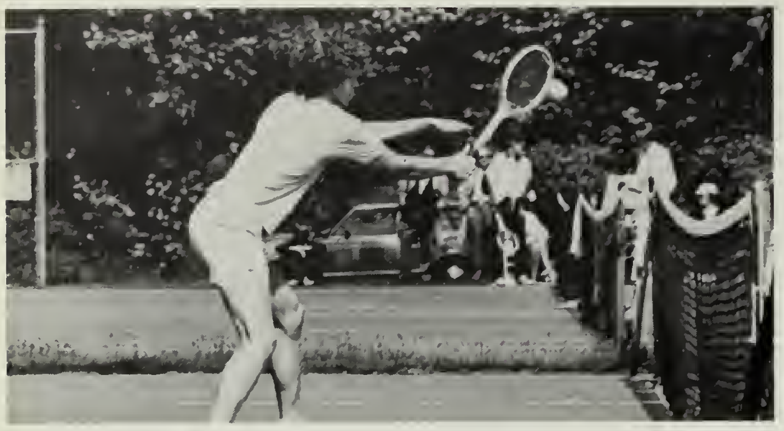
VARSITY TENNIS



This year's tennis team displayed both high morale and a lack of experience. The team's consistent strength was demonstrated by Steve Winer, Fred Collord, and Colin Cross, all of whom had already been accustomed to competitive tennis. The talents of David Goldbaum, John Randall, and Jim Zafris significantly supported the team's efforts.

The losses to Middlesex, Groton, Browne and Nichols, and Belmont Hill were justifiable. It was, however, disheartening to lose the remaining matches by one or two sets. The team's major weakness appeared in decisive doubles matches where strategic play was frequently lacking.

Coach Harlow took a sincere interest in the development of each individual's game. His indomitable spirit and attitude will play an essential role in inciting spirit and determination for next year's team. With only two of the top six returning, the team's future success will depend upon improvement of the lower ladder, and hopefully the addition of new talent.

Far from having a winning season with a 1-7 record, J.V. Lacrosse suffered a rather disappointing season. Though the disastrous first game was attributed to inexperience, it soon became apparent that a general lack of talent would not suffice as an excuse for the continually lopsided scores. Attackman Chip Fletcher, sidelined in midseason with an injury, high scorer Jeff Ogden, midfielders Phil Smith and Dan Clayman, and defenseman Peter Robertson contributed greatly through their skill and dedication. But they, along with the rest of the team, could not coordinate their various responsibilites to provide the successful team hoped for.

The team's shortcoming seemed to lie more with the general attitude of the team. Mental lapses and quick surrenders in the face of frustration and challenges on the part of many players were important factors with regard to the obviously poor showings. There was admittedly a great deal of unexhibited ability on the team, though Mr. Ogden with his lectures and Mr. Harrington with his "animal drills" did their bests in trying to reverse the pervasive losing process. Hopefully, the same losing attitude among the players will not be exhibited on either the Varsity or J.V. levels next year.

J.V. BASEBALL

J.V. Baseball, hindered by inexperience and a lack of numbers, finished the season with no wins and eight losses. Because only eight boys went out for the squad (later increased to eleven with the addition of a few cut from other squads), Coach James Baldwin had difficulty in even fielding a team. Most members were required to play at positions to which they were unaccustomed due to the lack of depth. Evidence of this is the fact that five different players found themselves on the mound at one time or another.

Mr. Baldwin's guidance and the team's resulting improvement were highlighted by the disparity between the team's two performances againt Belmont Hill. They were victimized early in the season in a 32-3 rout, but lost the rematch by the close score of 5-2 in their best game.

Bruce Towner, Roberto Arguello, Chris Richards, Jay Canning and Bill Shaheen shared mound duties while filling in at various other positions. Shortstop Chris Richards and leftfielder Brad White were the team's best hitters, both with .333 batting averages. Roberto Arguello and Mike Lambros, third base and second base respectively, finished the season with .300 and .294 batting averages. Rightfielder Esthimer, Super-sub Jerry Greenman, catcher Roger White, and pinchhitter Spencer Purinton filled the team's remaining spots.

The 1973 J.V. Tennis team experienced what is commonly termed "one of those years," especially for those with little or no previous tennis experience. The season was fortunately not a complete disaster, for the team managed to demolish Triton at the beginning of all the trials and infrequent triumphs which were to be. The first three places were held at the end of the year by Jon Gilman, Tim McClellan and Courtney Wang. Unfortunately, Jon Spence who deserved one of the three spots, developed tennis elbow and could not resume playing until the latter part of the season. The only really consistent aspect of the team's performance was the doubles partnership of Jon Gilman and Tim McClellan. Remaining performances fluctuated between bad and worse for the most part. Coach Kennedy, however, must be congratulated for keeping spirit and motivation high throughout the year.

The Freshmen Baseball team finished its 1973 season with a record showing two wins and six loses. Under the coaching of Mr. Fyrberg, accompanied by Steve Miller, the team won its two games against Triton and Exeter.

The team had a strong infield and outfield combination, with a spirited bench to back them up. The infield was sparked by the excellent pitching of Ken Bosch and Slugger Higgins. The strong men at the plate were, Bosch, Higgins, and Russell, also Steve Titcomb was reliable in the clutch.

Tragedy struck early in the season when first baseman John Giampa was injured on a throw to first base. The high point of the season came in the last inning against Exeter when the team got four straight hits for two runs, and won the game 6-5. Thanks to Mr. Fyrberg for his devoted time and effort.

GIRLS LACROSSE

If winning is all that constitutes a profitable year, then there's not much to be said concerning the GDA girl's lacrosse team. But, on the other hand, if one considers the keen and steady interest exhibited by girls, it was a most productive season. Mrs. Baker, together with the more experienced players such as Margie Lampert, Pam McElroy and Pam Pandapus, constructed a well coordinated team of lacrosse players. In our first game of the season we were soundly defeated — 13 to 2 — but not unhappy with the progression of our skills. In our next game our defense played a tighter game and the stick handling of the attack was tremendously improved. Just as the saying "neither rain, nor snow, nor sleet or hail . . . " applied to the mailman, so does the same principle apply to the girls lacrosse team. When our field was totally emersed under water, which was more often than not, we made use of the "bowl", and it was on that field that we encountered Abbot Academy. Although we had some very good plays we soon realized that we still had not mastered the game of lacrosse. Our next game, which in the words of our coach, was our most elegant game of the season. The St. Paul's girls couldn't understand why we were so ecstatic over the results. We had lost 10-0, yet never before had we played with such tremendous team work.

Our final game against Lawrence Academy did not match St. Paul's game in skill, but then it did not match any of our games in points either. We won 10-5. Naturally an integral part of any team's playing depends upon the coaching. Governor Dummer is fortunate in having Mrs. Baker as coach for girls athletics. Mrs. Baker's understanding, devotion and determination are the key factors which have made this year's athletic season immensely successful.

COMMENCEMENT

The Morse Flag was first awarded at the 150th Commencement of this school on June 9, 1913, and it has been awarded each year since that time to the senior whose record in all respects has met with the highest approval of the faculty. According to the trust established by the late Reverend Glenn Tilley Morse, a long-time friend and trustee of the Academy, a new flag is provided each year in order that the old flag which has flown during the past year may be given to a member of the graduating class. This year, the Morse Flag is awarded to

EDWARD CONWAY YOUNG

Today signals the 60th year in which this most important award has been made. The Morse Flag signifies excellence — excellence of character, of effort, and perhaps, above all, of responsiveness to and concern for others. It celebrates the highest qualities and the highest promise to which youth alone uniquely can aspire.

Man at his best is capable of generosity, of respect for the strengths and understanding for the weaknesses that inhabit each of us. At his best, he is unflagging in his interests, untiring in his pursuits, persevering in hope, creative. As Editor-in-Chief of the MILESTONE, Ed Young, with his staff, has had to put together not one but two volumes. The spectrum of his other attainments is every bit as imposing. Most recently a student teacher at the Brookwood School, he has been president of the Dramatic Society, president of the Chapel Choir, an assistant coach for the younger boys in soccer, track man, actor extraordinary, pianist — but most of all in being himself throughout three years of determined dedication, he has, as a warm and generous young man, won the admiration of the entire school.

On behalf of the faculty, I am proud to present the Morse Flag in 1973 to Ed Young.

THE ACADEMY PRIZE

There are two prizes which are awarded by vote of the entire faculty; one is the Morse Flag, awarded earlier this evening. The other is the Academy Prize. For many years the Academy Prize was maintained by the mother of Headmaster Emeritus Edward W. Eames. In June 1959 the underclassmen of the Academy endowed this prize so that henceforth at each Commencement it could be given "in honor of Edward W. and Eleanor K. Eames so that the qualities they so deeply prized might be prized in turn by future and succeeding classes." It is awarded to that senior who, by his unselfishness and sportsmanship, has best exemplified the spirit of the school.

Three-sport athlete, co-Managing Editor of the MILESTONE, a member of the Cum Laude Society, National Merit Scholarship finalist, winner last year of the Harvard Prize Book, the Moody-Kent Latin Prize, and the Colman Scholarship, by vote of the entire faculty this year's winner of the Academy Prize is

EDITOR'S PRIZE

The Yearbook Achievement Award is given each year by the editor to that member of the MILESTONE organization whose efforts to the production of the book have been most outstanding.

WILKIE SERVICE AWARD

At that point where I feel I have the most to say, I find myself once again at a loss for words sufficient to the purpose. Those of you who have known Val and Margie Wilkie know already of the richness of their dedication to this school. There may have been those who, sad to see them leave the Mansion House, wondered nevertheless how wise it might be to have the outgoing headmaster stay on for a year in the administration of the newcomer.

In one year, my debt to Val rivals the debt owed him by the Academy over the previous thirteen. To say nothing of his contributions as Director of Development, I must express my warmest appreciation, and Shiela's, both to him and to Marge for their quiet and unobtrusive support and advice, invaluable to us, and therefore to the Academy, over the months. Their contributions never cease.

This year for the first time a major prize is to be awarded at Governor Dummer to a senior whose contributions to the community outside the school have best demonstrated the deep concern, the unfailing sympathy and aid, for which Val and Marge Wilkie are affectionately remembered.

One member of the graduating class has quietly distinguished himself during the past five terms in this kind of service: through work with blind children, retarded children, in drug rehabilitation, and in local leadership of the national presidential campaign, he has worked unselfishly to help virtually every special Academy project of a service nature to succeed — in fund-raising for the drug center, for the school, for the hospitalization of Vietnamese children. In the Plum Island clean-up campaign, in the bloodmobile program, in a multiplicity of ways, he has worked to help others. I ask Val and Marge to present this award, given tonight for the first time, to

MARK NATHAN HOFFMAN

AMBROSE PRIZE SPEAKING AWARDS

In the words of Val Wilkie last year, it has often been said that the most brilliant idea is valueless if its originator cannot communicate it to others. Certainly in this decade we need the ability to exchange ideas, to negotiate, and in all this to understand each other clearly. Thus, our Speech course for seniors becomes ever more important.

Last night at the Commencement Dinner three members of the senior class demonstrated the value of the course through their fine performances. This morning I am very pleased to present the Ambrose Prize Speaking Awards to them:

First: GEORGE BENEDICT BROCK
Second: DONALD WEST KING, III
Third: DENNETT HARDEN BUETTNER

GOODWIN ATHLETIC PRIZE

The Goodwin Athletic Prize, established by Mr. Fred H. Goodwin of the Class of 1916, a trustee of the Academy from 1916 to 1949, is given to the senior who, by athletic achievement and sportsmanship, has brought the greatest honor to his school during the past year.

One could not find for this award a representative more widely or more genuinely respected, not only within the Academy but by every opponent who has competed against him, than the Class of 1973's winner. Last fall the All-League goalie and Governor Dummer Academy's Most Valuable Player in soccer, winner in both his junior and senior years of the Most Valuable Player award in basketball, in his senior year he has been co-captain in three sports: soccer, basketball, and baseball. A member of the Red Key Society, a musician, and one of the three redoubtable senior dormitory proctors in the Farmhouse, he is

BRUCE WAYLAND SHELDON

GAFFNEY PRIZE

The Gaffney Prize, established in memory of Robert A. Gaffney of the Class of 1940, is awarded to that senior who, in the opinion of his teachers, has been most considerate of the rights, opinions, and sensibilities of others.

The Gaffney Prize winner, like so many whom we are recognizing tonight, is a man of many parts. During this past year, you might have urged him on as one of the premier wrestlers, or applauded him as captain of the golf team in which capacity he carried off its Most Valuable Player award. As one of Mr. Witherspoon's most effective tour guides, he may have conducted you over the campus and answered your questions, or you may have read in the newspaper one of his many press releases concerning drama productions. Moreover, he is a scholar and a tutor in Mathematics.

DAVID DANIELS METCALF

BARRISKILL PRIZE

The James M. Barriskill Prize, established in 1960 by the students in memory of Mr. Barriskill of the faculty, is awarded annually to that member of the senior class who has made an outstanding contribution in the field of music at the Acadey.

Jim Barriskill, whom many of us knew for 11 years as a member of the faculty totally dedicated to this venerable old Academy, its students, and its aims, would take deep pride in the awarding of his prize to a young man whose achievements range from the track to the Chapel Choir, the classroom to the jazz group, winner of the Francis Scholarship in 1972, honored here for his many accomplishments in the field of music,

DENNETT HARDEN BUETTNER

THESPIAN AWARD

1973 is the third year in which our Drama Club, a member of the International Thespian Society, has made its Best Thespian Award.

This year the honor is divided between one who with consummate case has played carnival barker (in many a school meeting), blue-nose church deacon in GDA's current production, and who this winter became legendary King of the campus in CAMELOT — and one who is not an actor at all but the irreplacable and peerless man behind the scenes. They are:

CHARLES COBURN HOLLEMAN
AND

SPECIAL PRIZES

GOVERNOR DUMMER
ANNIVERSARY

1. A senior whose contributions may be found in virtually every facet of school life, prominent in support of every significant event. She stands as one of the 26 pioneers who, coming to the Academy two years ago, brought in to the old school a new element of strength and enthusiasm. The first Special Prize goes to

DEBORAH ANN EAMES

2. The next to carry off a Special Prize is one of the most unselfish and intense competitors the Academy has known. He is the Co-captain of the football team and co-winner of the Most Valuable Player award in the fall of 1972, the co-captain of the wrestling team, and co-owner of the Most Valuable Player award. This respected dorm proctor, among the leaders of the senior class, an ever-cheerful extrovert, is

CHRISTOPHER WILLIAM CALDWELL

3. Steady leadership and a special incomparable spark distinguish the next winner of a Special Prize. Member of the Student Council, the Red Key, head of the post office, chairman of the Black Brotherhood, he is, all in all, a rare human being indeed.

LARRY ANTHONY COLES

4. A regular on the Honor Roll, a dorm proctor, unselfish of his time in helping younger boys, co-captain of football, defenseman in lacrosse, a member of the Red Key, of the Glee Club, and of the Student Council, feature-editor of the GOVERNOR, co-chairman of the Catholic Church Committee, if there was ever a gentleman and a scholar, it is

CAREY JAMES DOYLE

5. Dependable to the nth degree, dorm proctor, Social Committee member, thespian extraordinary, the winner of the fifth Special Prize created his perhaps greatest role as an illiterate vagrant — "B, A, Beanpole, turn the corner, comb, tree" — Bailey, the jailbird of THE NIGHT THOREAU SPENT IN JAIL,

ARTHUR SCOTT JOHNSON

6. A good dorm proctor is a special kind of person — patient, firm, sought after and respected by student and faculty alike. Let me introduce you to one of the best, characterized equally by initiative and exuberance,

MICHAEL PENCE MILLIKAN

7. Hail-fellow-well-met to all, the next recipient covers the waterfront: Red Key member, dorm proctor, member of the MILESTONE board, co-captain of hockey and of lacrosse, he is a friend to all, happy-go-lucky with the best, and a true gentleman,

WILLIAM FRANCIS O'LEARY

8. There is no truth to the rumor that he is a robot created by his gifted roommate. President of the Radio Club, chairman of the Grill Committee, member of the Red Key and the Cum Laude Society, musician, master of gadgetry, creator of the weird and the wonderful, he is the one man who, by his departure, may short-circuit forever all electronic activity at Governor Dummer.

DOUGLASS JEFFREY WILSON

CUMINGS PRIZE

The Cumings Prize was established by the family and friends of the late Fred T. Cumings of Troy, New Hampshire. It is awarded annually to a student who has shown perseverance, hard work, and good spirit in his school life.

There are some who always seem to produce more than one could reasonably ask of them, who give pleasure to others and seem to find their own greatest pleasure in doing so. Member of Red Key and of the MILESTONE Board, three-sport athlete, co-winner of the Most Valuable Player Award in football last fall, campus leader in many respects, the recipient of the Cumings Prize this year is

GEORGE DOUGLAS POPE

INGHAM FUND SCHOLARSHIP

The Ingham Fund Scholarship was established through the generosity of the family of the late Dr. Charles S. Ingham, former headmaster of Governor Dummer Academy, in honor of his father, the late Samuel Kellogg Ingham of Saybrook, Connecticut, to help an industrious and able boy work his way through school.

This year's winner arrived at Governor Dummer, holding a Merrill Scholarship, last September. Throughout the year he has placed high on the Honor Roll. He has recently been elected co-Managing Editor of next year's MILESTONE. Math tutor, varsity soccer player, and co-captain this spring of the tennis team, the holder of the Ingham Fund Scholarship in 1973-74 will be

COLIN PAUL CROSS

HALE SCHOLARSHIP

The Hale Scholarship was established by Dr. and Mrs. Clayton H. Hale in memory of their son, Dean Channing Hale of the Class of 1961. It is awarded to that student who, through his own perseverance, has shown the most improvement in the various aspects of school life and has become an esteemed contributor to the well being of the Governor Dummer community.

The holder of the Hale Scholarship for 1973-74 is also one of the four student-representatives to the school's Discipline Committee, as well as a member of the Student Council. A track man in both winter and spring, last fall he was an aide at the Hathorne School for the mentally retarded, an experience which he escribes as the most rewarding of his life. He is the Circulation Manager-elect of the MILESTONE and a prominent member of the cast of "The Night Thoreau Spent in Jail,"

MICHAEL ALPHONAS HYMAN

THE WHITTEMORE AWARD

The Whittemore Award is given annually to that member of the sophomore class who by his attitude and perseverance has made the best contribution to the Academy.

EDWARD ALLAN BEARDSLEY

BAUSCH & LOMB MEDAL

The Bausch and Lomb Medal goes to that senior who, in the estimation of the faculty, has been most outstanding in the study of science.

WILLIAM HOLT MARTIN

NOR DUM
ANNIV

In what represents a change from the traditional on Commencement Eve, I am about to make three awards to the same individual, two of which are customarily given at the graduation ceremonies on Saturday:

RENSSELAER POLYTECHNIC INSTITUTE MEDAL

which is awarded to a member of the junior class who has been outstanding in the study of mathematics and science during the year; for the highest standing in Mathematics.

THE MOODY KENT PRIZE

THE HARVARD PRIZE BOOK

has been endowed by Mr. Roger B. Coulter, Class of 1913, first winner of the Morse Flag and a former trustee of the Academy, so that it may be awarded each year in the future. The book is awarded to that member of the junior class deemed most worthy through high scholarship and character.

These three prize awards were determined by the Prize Committee shortly before the frightening accident which brought severe injuries to their recipient. An accomplished musician, a hard-working center fielder in baseball, academically #1 in his class for the past three years, he has already, as a junior, been accepted for entrance to the Lehigh University College of Arts and Engineering for next fall — and he has been able to come here tonight to accept his awards:

CARL MARTIN BOSCH

COLMAN SCHOLARSHIP

The Edmund Coffin Colman Scholarship is awarded to an undergraduate who has shown proficiency in the study of languages. The holder of this scholarship for the school year 1973-74 will be

PAMELA JO McELROY

FRANCIS SCHOLARSHIP

The Francis Scholarship was established by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Francis in June 1941 in memory of their son, Richard Hawes Francis, of the Class of 1936. It is awarded each year to an underclassman of high character who has made substantial intellectual progress and who has demonstrated a spirit of cooperation and helpfulness during his school life.

Another junior to distinguish himself particularly this past year is a member of the Red Key Society and Business-Manager-elect of the MILESTONE. He carries a most difficult and demanding responsibility as one of the student representatives to the Academy's Discipline Committee. Co-captain-elect of both soccer and basketball and a member of the lacrosse team, the holder of the Francis Scholarship for next year is

DAVID BARNITZ WILLIAMS

MOODY KENT PRIZES

The Moody Kent Prizes are given annually to those students throughout the school who have achieved outstanding records in various academic departments. No more than one may be awarded to the same student.

1. The Moody Kent Prize for the highest standing in ENGLISH is awarded to

DENNETT HARDEN BUETTNER

2. The Prize for the highest standing in HISTORY to

MICHAEL BALF

3. The Moody Kent Prize for the highest standing in FRENCH is awarded to

ELIHU HERSHFIELD

4. The Prize for the highest standing in SPANISH to

PHILIP CONGER SMITH

5. The Moody Kent Prize for the highest standing in GERMAN goes to

JAMES LEONARD ZAFRIS

6. The Prize for the highest standing in LATIN to

JOHN CHAUNCEY BLAKE

7. The Moody Kent Prize for the highest standing in SCIENCE goes to

GLEN KALANI WINKEL

8. The Prize for the highest standing in MATHEMATICS to

CARL MARTIN BOSCH

9. The Moody Kent Prize for the highest standing in RELIGION goes to

PETER FORREST RICHARDSON

10. The Prize for the highest standing in ART to

THOMAS JAMES ARSENAULT

11. The Moody Kent Prize for the highest standing in MUSIC goes to

CORINNE IDA BOSCH

THORNDIKE HILTON CUP:

The Thorndike Hilton Cup was established by the Class of 1919 in memory of their classmate, Thorndike Hilton. It is awarded each year to the ranking scholar in the senior class. With the cup goes a silver medal.

This year, the winner of the Thorndike Hilton Cup was determined in what may well have been the closest competition in the history of this ancient Academy. The top four scholars in the class, by corrected averages figured on a 4-point scale, finished their senior year within 14/100's of a point of one another. The leader of this most impressive quartet, by what was therefore a tiny but decisive margin, has amassed an imposing record in his four years at Governor Dummer. A member of the Cum Laude Society at the end of his junior year, active in the Drama Club, the Choir, in music, member of the cross-country team in the famous "loaf" squad in track, winner of the Francis Scholarship last June, National Merit finalist, he rises this morning to accept recognition as the premier scholar in the Class of 1973.

Dear Rejected Applicant:

It gives me great pleasure to inform you that your application for admission to our great institution has been turned down. As you know, we have 1500 places to fill this year and received 1501 applications. Many arduous nights and great diligence and care were necessary, but we feel confident that we have made the right decision. I hope you had identical success in your other endeavors to gain admission at less prestigous schools around the country, more suitable to your level of intelligence and achievement, as your audacious initiative in applying to our college should most certainly be rewarded.

We have hung your application in the faculty lounge so that whenever one of us has had a bad day we may merely glance at your hilarious form and be filled with laughter and enjoyment for the rest of the day. Please do not write us again as we are not anticipating future correspondence on your part. May you gain employment editing want ads for stray mongrels in Grubstake, Idaho. With personal regards, I am
